BLACK CHERRY

LEAF

- simple, glossy, dark green, oblong to lance-shaped with finely serrate edges; emerge in spring

FORM

- HEIGHT 50 feet
- WIDTH 25 feet
- narrow, rounded crown with upright to drooping branches

FALL COLOUR

- shades of yellow to red

FLOWER

- small, white, fragrant, slender, hanging clusters; emerge in late spring

FRUIT

- medium, red to dark purple, round clusters of fleshy drupes containing small pits; mature in late summer

BARK

- smooth, reddish-brown when young; rough, scaly, irregularly plated (cornflake appearance), dark reddish-brown when mature

JUST PLANTED

MATURE FORM